

ALEXANDRA
PALACE

FILMING & PHOTOGRAPHY

Mr Middleton in Television Garden ©BBC 1937

Opened in 1873 as an entertainment venue for Victorian London, Alexandra Palace has been at the centre of extraordinary events for over 150 years including the first regular television broadcast in 1936 by the BBC. Its rich history adorns the fabric of the building, providing a multi-location site for productions. The Palace has nine interlinking and flexible indoor spaces including the magnificent Great Hall, lofty ice rink and sensitively restored Victorian Theatre, surrounded by 196 acres of parkland overlooking all of London. With Unit Base, Wardrobe and Rehearsal Space also on offer, discover the unique filming locations and studio spaces of Alexandra Palace.

Contact the Sales Team to discuss your enquiry further filming@alexandrapalace.com

Victorian Theatre

474 Sqm / Arrested Decay / Adaptable Floor Space / Original Features

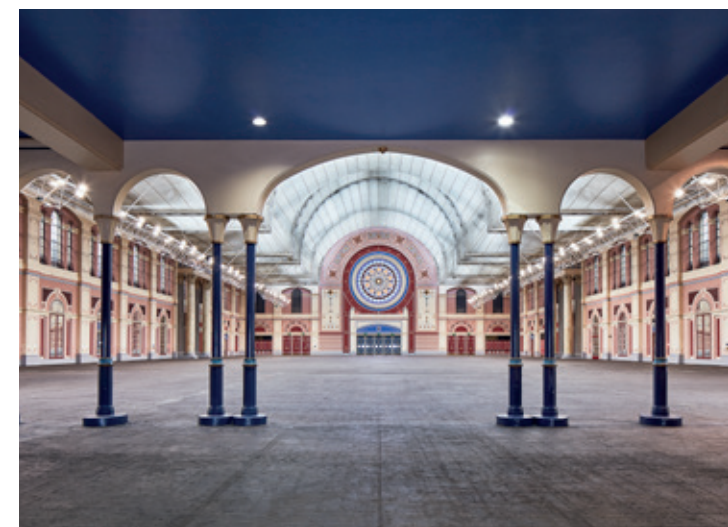

Theatre Ancillary Spaces

Exposed Brick / Theatre Bar & Foyer / Period Features

East Court

1,414 Sqm / Glass Atrium / High Ceilings / Natural Sunlight

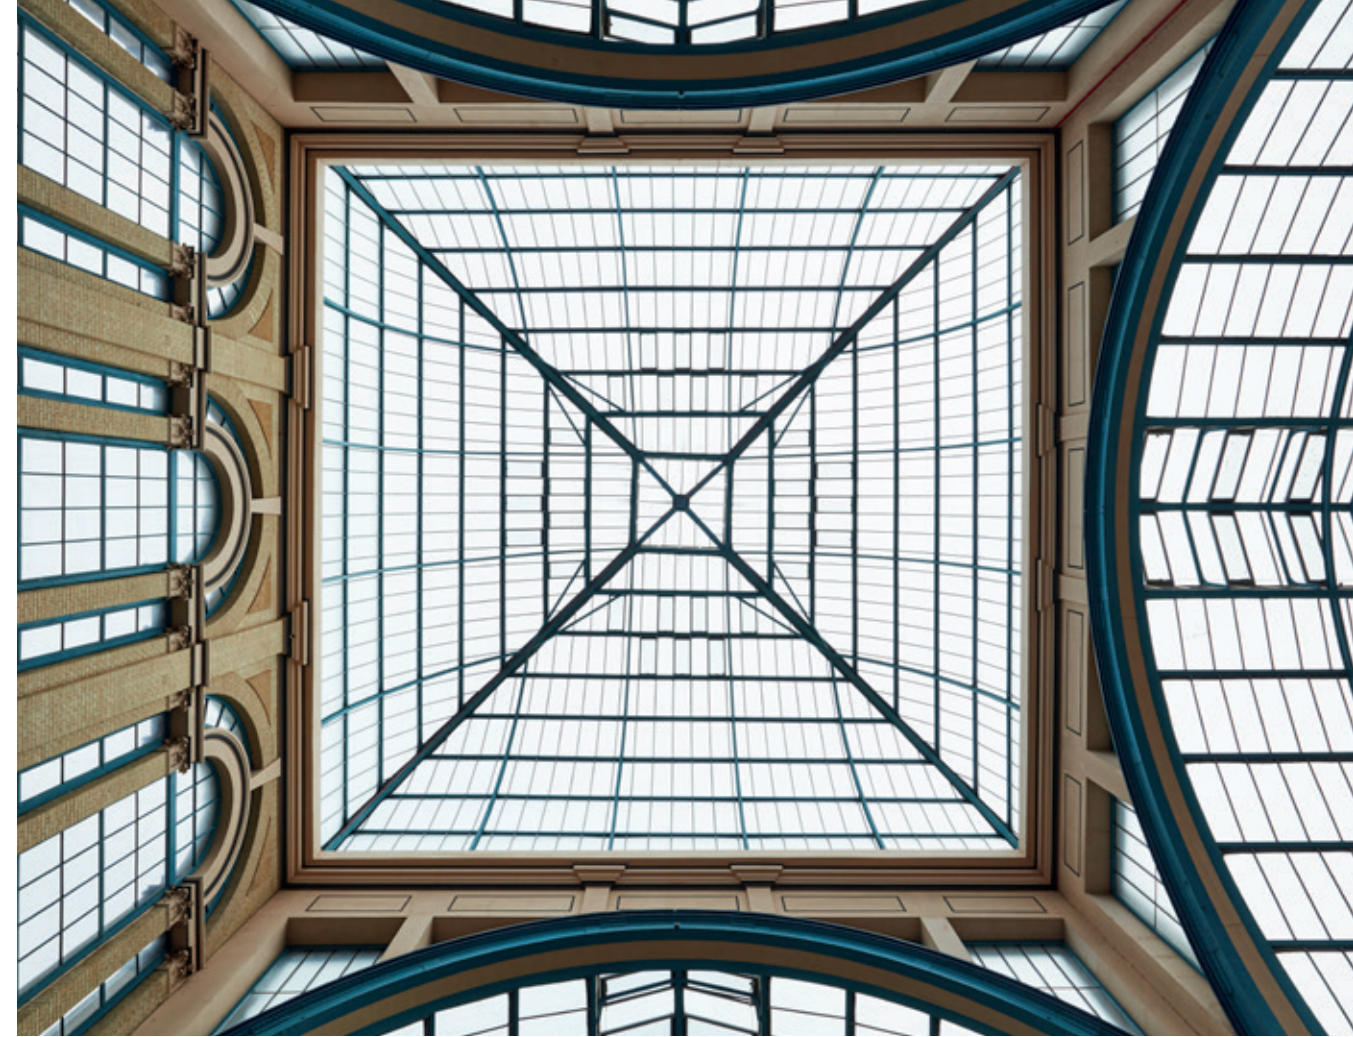

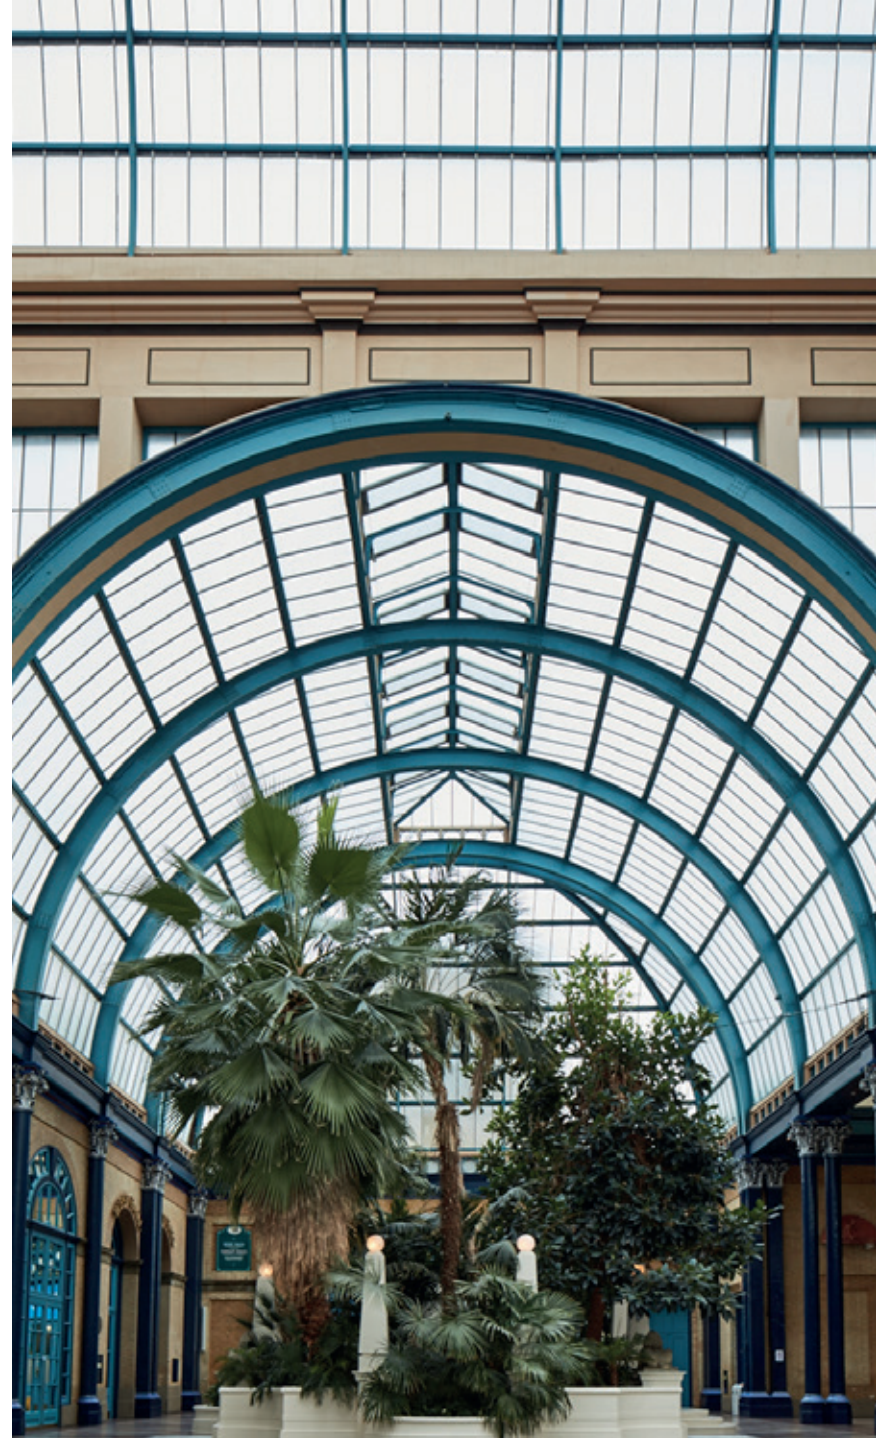

Great Hall

6,426 Sqm / Natural Daylight / Road Level Access / Rigging Facilities

West Hall

2,700 Sqm / Blackout / Road Level Access / Rigging Facilities

Palm Court

1,644 Sqm / Glass Atrium / Curved Features / Palm Trees

West Corridor

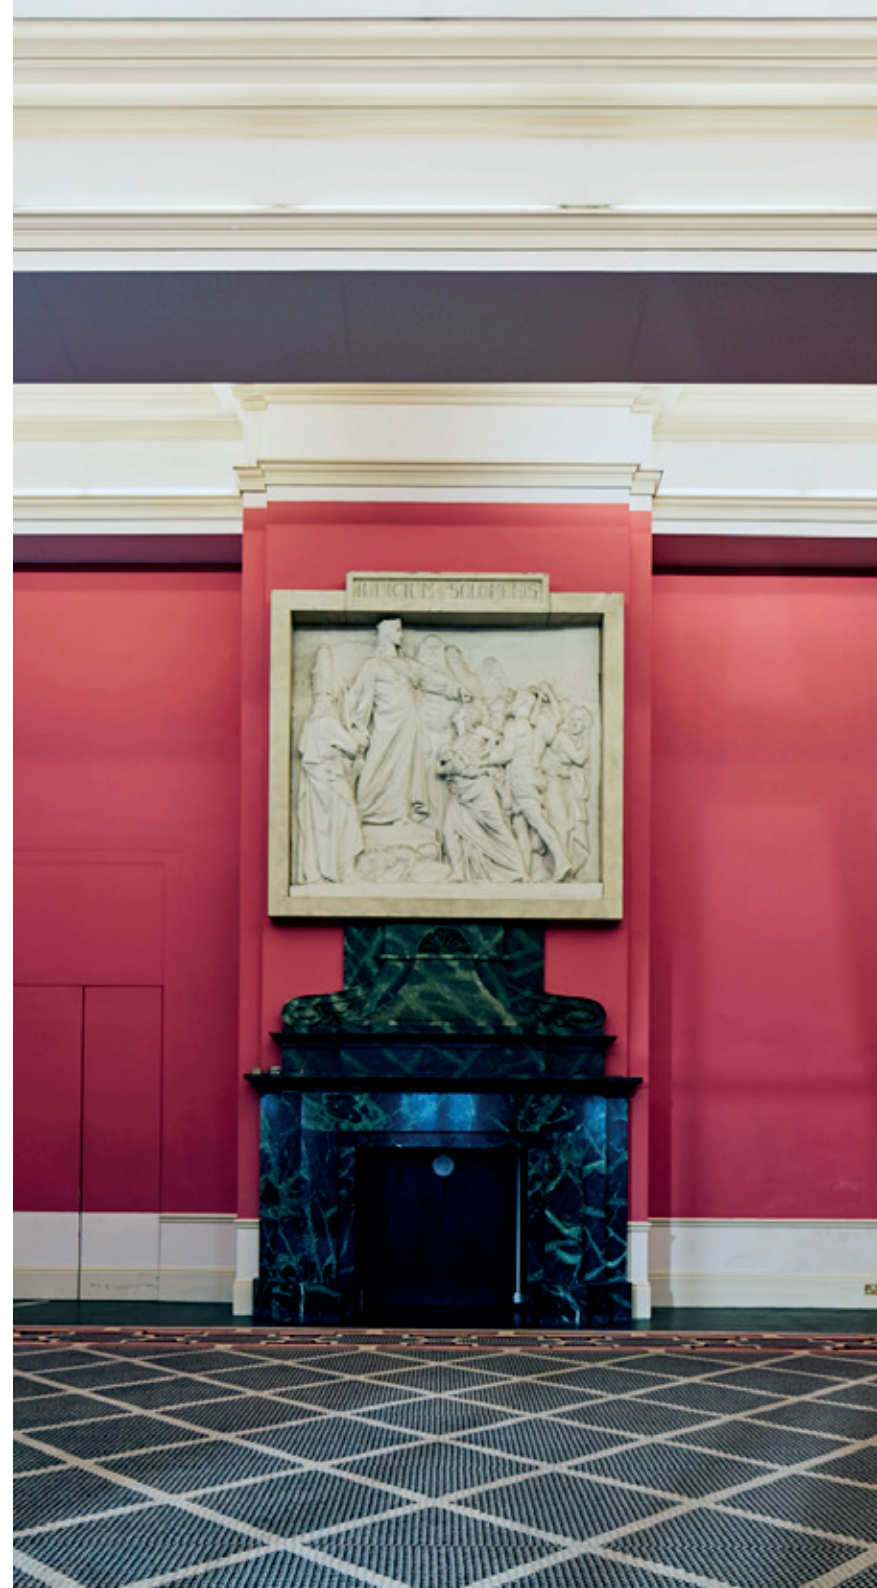

Painted Murals / Mirrored Walls / Tiled Floor

Marble Stairs

Marble Foyer / Contrasting Features / Grandeur

Londesborough Room

216 SQM / Opulent Features / High Ceiling / Built In Fireplace

Palace Suite

364 Sqm / Draping / Trompe-L'oeil Murals / Fixed Bar

Ice Rink

1,456 Sqm / Full Size Ice Rink / 700 Raked Seating / Overnight Filming Available

North Yard

2,900 Sqm / Exposed Brick / Unpolished / Industrial

Play Ground

Play Area / Park Features / Landscaped

Skate Park

Graffiti Wall / Ramps / Multi-Level

Boating Lake

Lake / Lakeside Cafe / Secluded Leafy Areas

Alexandra Park

Views Of London / Woodland / Rose Garden

South Terrace

Collonades / Terrace And Promenade / Victorian Features

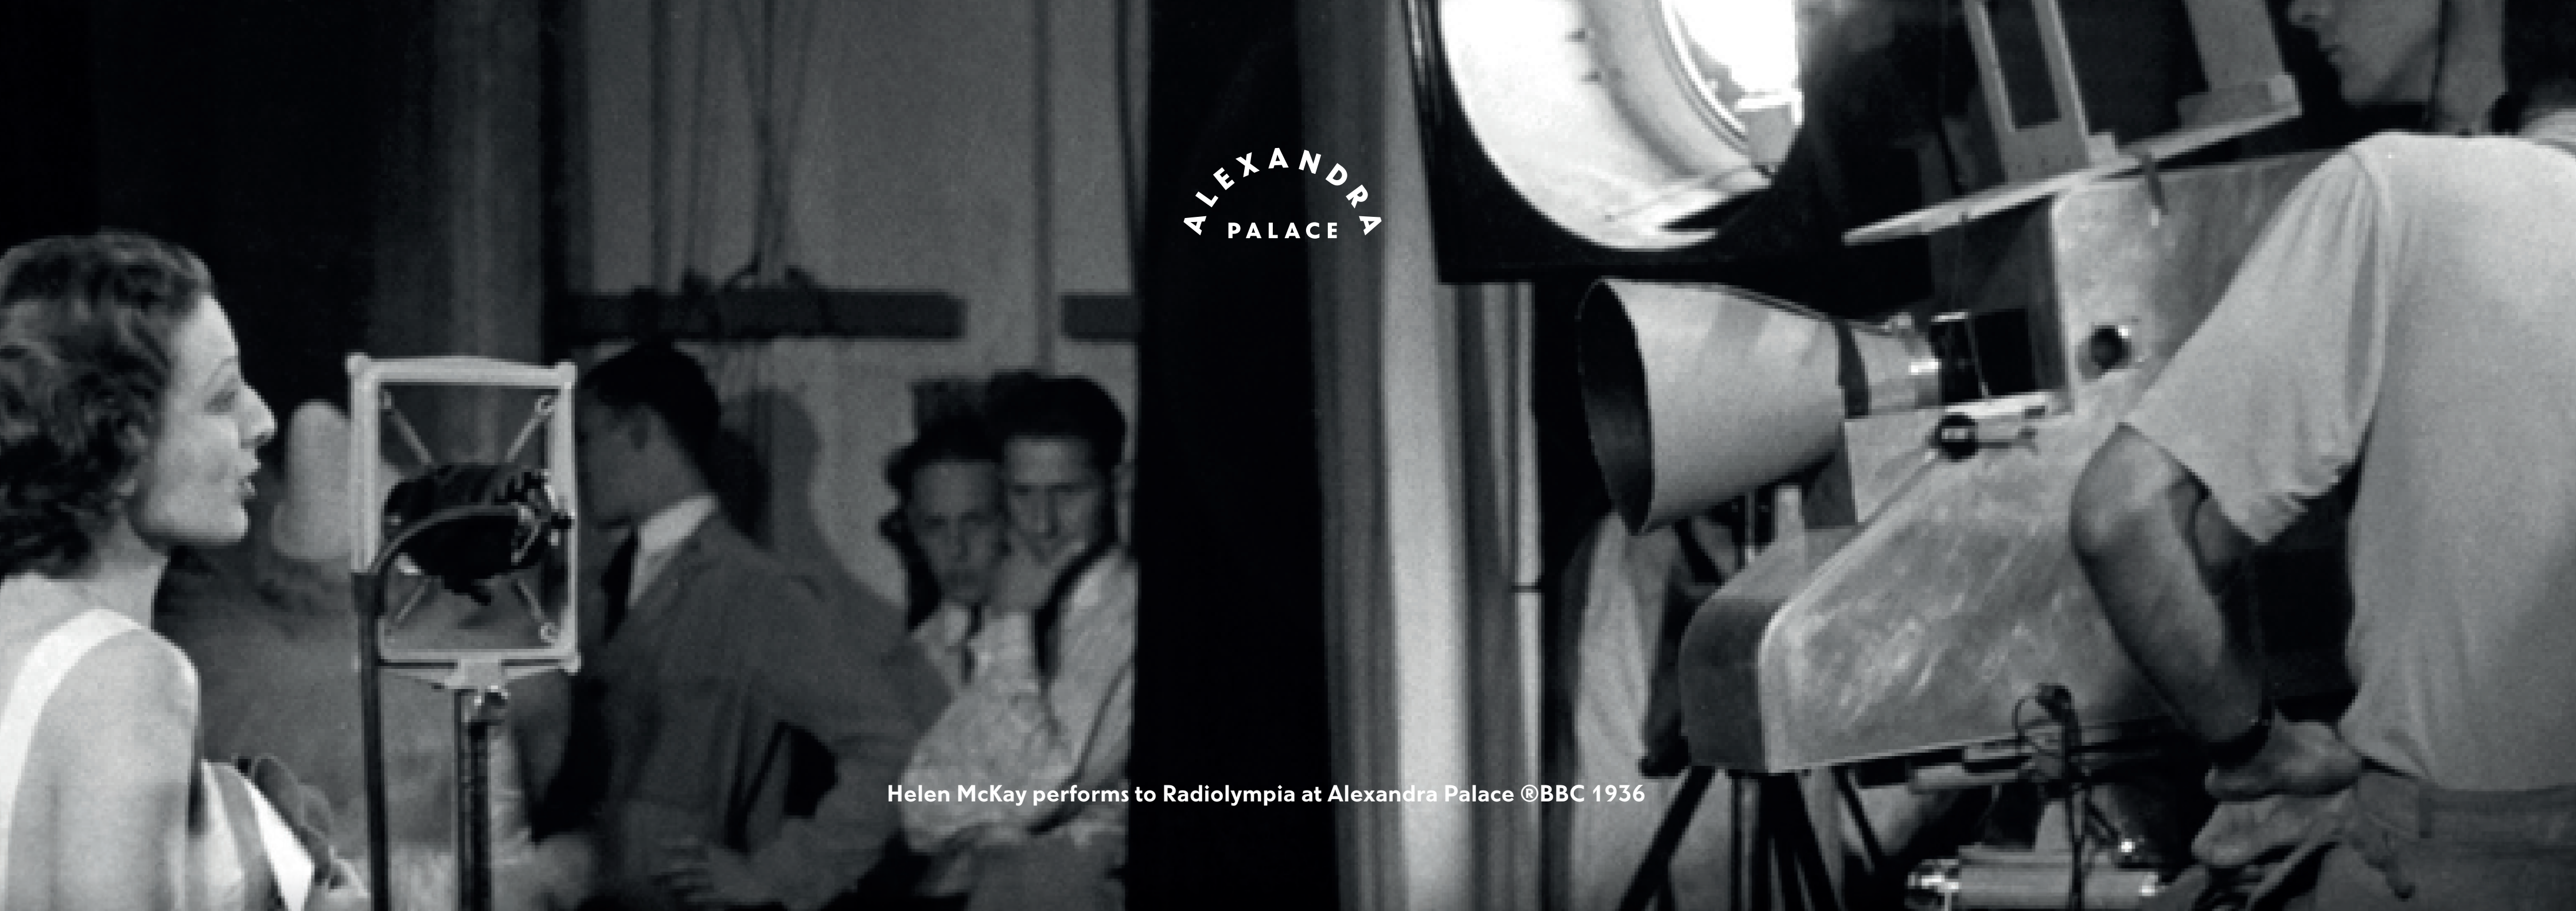

Unit Base

4020 Sqm Available / Large Flat Surface Area / Easy Access / Overnight Tenancy Available

ALEXANDRA
PALACE

Helen McKay performs to Radiolympia at Alexandra Palace ©BBC 1936